

Nominjin BioData

Numerous public performances in several countries (most recently a five city tour of the United States in January 2006). Performances include co-hosting a 6 hour show for a crowd of 45,000 and co-hosting a 4 hour MTV special (her co-host was a well regarded VJ from MTV/Asia).

Nominjin launched herself onto the Mongolian music scene in July 2003. Her songs are now constantly playing on all 12 major radio stations and her music videos are often aired on major TV stations. She is frequently invited for large public performances.

Nominjin has worked with a well respected LA Producer and BMG song-writer. Mr. Rick Neigher has produced such singers as Prince, Michelle Branch and Alanis Moressette. Nominjin's is coached by the world-renowned "coach to the star", Mr. Roger Love - whose portfolio has included the Jackson Five, Eminem, Mandy Moore, Papa Roach, Cold Play.

During 2003 - 2004 Nominjin wrote and hosted her own TV show. This show consistently earned the highest viewer rating on the channel (STV), aired on prime time on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings in Mongolia and was broadcast by a major channel in Northern China.

Not only is Nominjin an accomplished English and Mongolian singer, she also sings in Hindi, Russian, Spanish and Japanese. Having lived in Mongolia, the Caribbean, India and Russia, she is multi-lingual As such; Nominjin has the potential to reach out to international audiences.

STRENGTHS

Social Background: 16 year old female of Mongolian nationality and race who has resided in Russia, Mongolia, India and the Caribbean. Mongolian mother and American Step-Father.

Acting Strengths:

Natural Stage Presence and acting ability. Highly adaptable to different stage and performing venues. Ability to work under pressure.

Height 5'5 (1.64 meters). Brown Hair. Light Asian Tan Complexion. Practices Yoga, Vegetarianism and Meditation. Serious student of Ballet.

Vocal Strengths:

Tonal: Three Octave Capability.

Style: Unique "Nominjin" style of blending traditional Mongolian influences with pop/R&B - with live instrumentals and substantive lyrics. Performance experience with R&B, American Pop, Western Rock,

	Hindi Movie Songs, Mongolian Pop, Mongolian Traditional ("long-song") and Russian Pop. Linguistic Capabilities: Fluent in English, Fluent in Mongolian, Intermediate Russian, Intermediate Malayalam (Considered as one of the World's most difficult languages). Beginner Languages: Chinese, Japanese, Spanish, French and Hindi. Natural ability to learn languages with ease and perfection. Stage Presence: Good, with a natural ability as a dancer and performer Influences: Aretha Franklin, Etta James, Janis Joplin, Alicia Keys.
DISTINCTIONS	Mongolia: Seven # 1 hits in 2005. Best Pop Artist 2005. Best Young Pop Singer 2004 and National Gold youth medal modern/rock/pop 2001. Global: EMI feat. artist for a remix of John Lennon's "Give Peace a Chance".
RECORDINGS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Numerous song releases in Mongolia of which more than 10 have been in the top ten charts. ● Ten Mongolian music video releases, of which two figured among the most popular videos of 2004. ● First ever English language music video release in Mongolia and First English language song release in Mongolia
PERFORMANCES	International: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Concert Tour USA 2005 (Los Angeles, San Fransico, Denver, Chicago, Washington, DC). ● Ocean Fest Concert (St. Kitts, Caribbean) ● International Music Festival (St. Kitts, Caribbean) ● LAMA, Los Angeles, California ● Beijing Toronto Jin-Lung (Beijing, China) ● Turkey – Several large venues. Sponsored by the Government of Turkey. ● Korea – Several large venues. UNICEF sponsored. ● Russia – Two performances sponsored by "ICE TV" In Mongolia: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Sukhbaatar Square (45,000 crowd). Co-Host and singer for a 7 hour show. ● UB Palace (numerous performances). Crowd capacity 3,500. ● Other major concert halls. Average Crowd capacity 1,500. ● Weekly contract singer at top rated venues. ● Special Guest performer on numerous occasions in different venues including for the Speaker of Parliament of India, President of the World Bank, All Star Concerts, etc.